

Children's Book: Brainstorming

Aligns with CCRE Unit 1 Lesson 6

Introduction

In your next unit, you will be creating a children's book that, through a story, addresses the essential question of what it means to be a hero.

In this lesson, you will be the plot, characters, and other elements of your story. By the end of this lesson, you will turn in two forms on which you present your ideas.

Instructions

1. As a class, we will review how to complete the two forms that you will be required to turn in by the end of the lesson. We will use a story you have previously read, The Last Leaf, to model the use of these forms.
2. Individually, you will complete the two forms, My Elements of Fiction and My Fictional Narrative Writing Frame using your own story ideas. You can download those forms below.
 - a) My Elements of Fiction
 - b) My Fictional Narrative Writing Frame
3. In writing groups of no more than four, share your ideas and make any desired changes to your forms.
4. Post your two forms to your portfolio.
