Multimedia Projects Spring 2019 ELA 10

Instructions – General

1. You will be completing three projects in the final quarter of the school year.

2. Each project must be related to the main subject for the project number.

3. Each project must use a different platform chosen from the list provided by the teacher.

4. You will use a shared Google Doc to post project links, subjects, and tools.

Instructions – Technical

For full credit, each project must include:

1. At least 600 words. If the project is a video or podcast, then the script must be turned in.

2. At least three references retrieved from our library or ERIC (digital or hard copy).

3. At least four occurrences of media other than text. This could be three instances of one media, such as three pictures, or one instance of three different media (i.e. one image, one audio file, one video), or any other combination. (This requirement is waived for podcasts.)

Instructions – Content

For full credit, each project must include:

1. A summary of at least two issues, controversies, or questions related to your chosen subject.

2. Your personal views or opinions on each issue, supported with specific examples and sound logic.

Multimedia Report Rubric

	Information	Organization	Language	Citations and References (C&R)
4	All essential information included. Multiple, specific examples are included. Excellent use of at least 3 instances of media in addition to text.	Organized very logically and clearly. Layout supports and enhances information. Information is presented using a consistent, clear style.	Grammar and usage are correct. Spelling, capitalization, and punctuation are correct.	C & R complete and in proper format Creative use of different in-text citation styles
3	Most essential information is provided. Some specific examples are included. Excellent use of at least 2 types of media.	Organization is OK overall but could be improved. Layout does not interfere with presentation. Some irregularities in style, but generally presentation is OK.	Some grammatical and usage errors. Several spelling, capitalization, and punctuation errors occur.	C & R complete but with minor formatting errors
2	Some essential information is missing, giving the report a feeling of incompleteness. Little use of multimedia. Few specific examples.	Organization is confusing at points. Layout sometimes interferes with presentation. Style often irregular leading to distraction.	Grammar and usage are incorrect in many places, but the writer's ideas are still clear. Spelling, capitalization, and punctuation are often incorrect but do not make comprehending the story difficult.	Missing no more than 3 C & R Some C & R not properly formatted
1	A lot of essential information is missing. No use of multimedia, report is delivered using one media. No specific examples	Organization is often confusing. Layout often interferes with presentation. Little or no evidence of an attempt to use a consistent style	Many grammatical and usage errors change the meaning of the writer's ideas. Spelling, capitalization, and punctuation are incorrect throughout.	Missing more than 3 C & R C & R poorly formatted or not formatted at all
